A JOURNEY THROUGH THE GRAND AND SUPREME LODGES

Space and time, we realize as non-existent. They are but arbitrary standards for measuring the intervals of the human consciousness' realization of material form. You have, therefore, though distant, likely become aware of these various chambers of the Grand and Supreme Lodges. To further establish your contact with them, I beg to take you on a mental and visual journey through these pages. As you travel from page to page, we hope you may have that consciousness of the environment of each view which will leave with you the experience of having visited us in reality.
